[SPECIAL CABLE NEWS FROM THE WORLD.]
LONDON, Jan. 14.—Maggie Gale, a prepossessing young lady of Albany, sailed from New York on the City of Berlin a week ago. When the vessel was but one day out at sea she took a dose of rat poison.

She was immediately thrown into convulsions and after a few hours of horrible agony expired.

She confessed that she ran away from home on account of a family quarrel, but steadfastly refused to disclose its nature or give any particulars.

She stated that she took passage on the City of Berlin with the deliberate intention of committing suicide.

Miss Gale was twenty years of age and well dressed.

Shortly after this tragedy took aboard were started by the ravings of another saloon passenger, who proved to be H. D. Blondin, of New York.

He had become insane from delirium tremens and died within a few hours.

On the third day out there was a double funeral, and both bodies were buried at sea.

At the Inman Line office, No. 6 Bowling Green, it was stated that Miss Maggie Gale was registered from Albany, N. Y.

D. H. Blondin gave his residence as Athens, Pa.

MOST IS UNTERIFIED.

Life Says He is Not Afraid of Anything the Anarchists May Do.

A sojourn of a few months on Blackwell's Island and an overhanging sentence to another term at that resort seem to have had the effect of quieting the fiery anarchism of John Johann Most, editor of Freiheit.

His editorial utterances are not so sanguinary as formerly, and his former friends and followers in the blood-red brotherhood of murder have not been so numerous.

It is said that the valiant Most craved under his mistress's bed at the approach of the rain the two years ago together and have decided among themselves that the fire-eating little man is a coward.

The same said in a circular of denunciation recently issued by and to the faithful disciples of disorder.

To an Evening World reporter Herr Most says, regarding the episode:

"These people are a few cranks whom we bounced from the International Working secret society because they were obstructive. What they say isn't worth noticing."

The circular says you are a greedy, self-seeking creature, an egotist, a hypocrite, a scoundrel, defaming everybody who refuses to bow down before you, and it is hinted that there is a plot afoot to murder you," said the reporter.

Oh, they were to assassinate me in November," replied Most with a distortion which was probably intended for a smile.

I have answered in my paper in two lines. I am not afraid."

I shall not answer further. My chief assailant, Franz Penkert, is in Europe. He has never been in America. See I have friends!" and Herr Most displayed a letter renewing a subscription to his paper and containing $2 in capitalist greenbacks.

SECESSION MEDICAL STUDENTS.

The Weisse Parliaments Present Their Resignations to the University Faculty.

L. S. Rosenstill, on behalf of himself and ninety-one other students who until recently attended the University of the Medical College of New York, presented a paper to the Faculty this morning formally notifying them of their withdrawal from the University.

This is the secession of dental students threatened and now carried out, because Prof. Weisse, a favorite among the students, was not given the chair of anatomy in the University when it was vacated recently.

A. J. Walsh, who left the college when Prof. Weisse resigned, refused to disclose his secret way for procuring bodies, and the Faculty is now obliged to supply fresh bodies for dissection at other colleges have to.

Mr. Walsh, by his secret process, preserved the bodies of the dead, and they are now being used for a long time after their death.

SORROW OVER CAPT. TOAL.

The Coroners Pass Resolutions and Order the Office Closed To-Morrow.

The Board of Coroners met to-day, with Coroner Levy in the chair, to take action on the death of Chief Clerk John S. Toal.

Coroner Levy was appointed to draw up suitable resolutions, expressing sympathy with the family of Capt. Toal, and the high appreciation which the Coroners held of him for the conscientious and able manner in which he discharged his duties. The resolutions will be engrossed and presented to the family.

The Coroners will attend the funeral in a body from 107 Henry street, at 9 A. M. to-morrow, and the office will be closed during the forenoon.

For Ladies Only.

Ladies—why is it, that when your husband or your children are ill, you consult the best physician at once, care for them day and night, weary yourself out with sleepless watching, and never begrudge the heaviest doctor's bill, if only the dear ones are restored to health; while day after day, week after week, you endure that dull pain in your back—that terrible "dragging-down" sensation—and do absolutely nothing to effect a cure? In a few years you will be a helpless invalid, and soon your broken-hearted husband and motherless children will follow you to the grave. Perhaps delicate prevents you consulting a physician—but even this is not necessary. Four sufferers, tell your husband how miserably you feel—perhaps you never did—and ask him to stop tonight and get you a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It has cured thousands of women suffering from weakness and complaints peculiar to your sex.

DEATH CAME IN BY NIGHT.

THIS MORNING'S SIGNS OF HIS PRESENCE AT THE GOULD MANSION.

A Loving Wife and Mother and a Faithful Friend Taken Away While at Her Family Residence at Her Bedside—The Funeral Services to Be of the Simplest—The Gould Mansion at Woodlawn.

A large bowl of black crape suspended from the door-knob of the Gould residence in Fifth avenue this morning, the heavy oak doors tightly closed, and drawn curtains at every window, told the passer-by that the death, daily expected at the mansion for many weeks past, had come as a silent guest of the night.

Mrs. Jay Gould, beloved by the large circle of friends in which she moved for her kindly manners and benevolence of heart, had at last found relief from the living death which she had endured so long.

Beck of the power of speech, of the use of limbs, she lay prostrated by a paralytic shock, and all the efforts of medical skill and loving attention failed to bring her relief.

Her mental faculties remained unimpaired since her first attack, four months ago, and she was thus able to appreciate all the care and attention lavished upon her by her family.

Jay Gould, her husband, has seldom left his wife's bedside since her illness began, and his affection for his

PARIS, Jan. 14.—A manifesto has been issued by the Anarchists advising all who share their opinions to abstain from voting at the coming election.

Scythia Arrives at Queenstown.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]
BOSTON, Jan. 14.—The Cunard steamship Scythia, which left this port a week ago Saturday, arrived at Queenstown to-day.

THE GOULD AND ADJACENT PLOTS IN WOODLAWN.

They open inward and are ornamented with dragons' heads and an open fretwork of cherubs and vines. Through the latter the interior crypt can be seen.

At the end of the crypt, opposite the entrance, is a stained glass window, with a choir of angels figured upon it.

The tomb was completed in December, 1883, at a cost about $80,000. Its construction was in accordance with the expressed wish of Mrs. Gould.

Slabs of marble, removable at will, close the catacombs or resting places for the coffins.

There are ten of these places, in rows of five on each side of the crypt, making twenty in all.

Hotel-keeper Pierson Says Not Guilty.

Frank A. Pierson, proprietor of the Sturtevant House, who was indicted for a misdemeanor in not maintaining at his hotel the fire-escapes required by law, was arraigned before Recorder Smyth this morning in the General Sessions and pleaded not guilty through his counsel, De Lancey Nicol. The case was adjourned.
